Three hundred thousand across of land on Ba-wall, Sandwich Islands, being one-twelfth of the whole area of the Kingdom, were sold recently for $5,109. The tract contains half a dezen good sized volcames, four or five large sheep firms, and an immense quantity of puln in the rough. The purchaser has been dubbed, since the ancient sale, the I (fixe of Kahuka, which is the name of the land in question.
